United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

In re: GOOGLE LLC,
Petitioner

2021-170

On Petition for Writ of Mandamus to the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas in No. 6:20-cv-00881-ADA, Judge Alan D. Albright.

ON MOTION

Before BRYSON, Circuit Judge.

O R D E R

Google LLC moves to stay claim construction proceedings in the underlying case, pending this court's consideration of Google's petition for a writ of mandamus seeking to transfer that case, and for an interim stay.* Google states that Sonos, Inc. opposes.

* Because the claim construction hearing Google seeks to stay is scheduled for August 10, 2021, a single judge of this court is deciding these motions. See Fed. R. App. P. 8(a)(2)(D) (explaining that “in an exceptional case

The court considers four factors in evaluating a motion for a stay pending appeal: (1) whether the movant has made a strong showing of a likelihood of success on the merits; (2) whether the movant will be irreparably injured absent an injunction; (3) whether issuance of the injunction will substantially injure the other parties interested in the proceeding; and (4) where the public interest lies. See Nken v. Holder, 556 U.S. 418, 434 (2009). Without prejudicing the ultimate disposition of the petition, the court concludes that Google has not established that a stay pending that petition is warranted here.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

The motion (ECF No. 5) is denied.
